An estimated 143 million children are orphaned by one or both parents worldwide. These children are at a higher risk of becoming victims of violence, exploitation, trafficking, discrimination or other abuses. They often face malnutrition, illness and impaired physical and emotional development.

A donation of $25 per month can provide a month's worth of educational materials for 50 orphaned children.

A donation of $50 per month can supply one month's worth of medical care for an orphaned child suffering from AIDS.
